JOHN H. SINGLETON.
Was born at Norristown, Pa., Dec. 17th, 1844. Married Tillie Scott April 19, 1871 to whom two children were born; now Mrs. W. V. Hoagland and Mrs. L. E. Hastings of North Platte. His first wife died at North Platte, Feb. 28, 1889. Subsequently Mr. Singleton was married at Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 1st, 1896 to Miss Anne Leese, to which union one child was born which died in infancy. Mr. Singleton is now survived by his widow and his two daughters all residents of North Platte, Nebraska.
When a small boy Mr. Singleton went from Eastern Pennsylvania to Pittsburg with his parents in a flat house boat and became an expert mechanic. He was a veteran of the Civil War and served his country in the battles of Antietam and Bull Run.
He was one of fourteen children and is the last of his brothers and sisters to go to the final rest.
In 1875 Mr. Singleton and his family moved from Pittsburg, Pa., to Omaha, Nebraska, where he went to work in the Union Pacific Railroad shops and was in the employ of the Union Pacific from that time until his death. He was transferred to Evanston, Wyoming, in 1875 and lived at Evanston until 1879 when Mr. Singleton was transferred to North Platte. For the past 42 years Mr. Singleton has been an honored resident of this city. During a large portion of the time he was General Foreman of the Railroad shops at this terminal. Many men now prominent as railroad officials of this country acquired their knowledge of practical railroading from Mr. Singleton. He was always successful in handling men and every man in the service of the Union Pacific whether it was the President or the humblest man always had a good word for John Singleton. Under his management the Railroad terminal at North Platte was known as the most efficient on the system.
In 1909 on account of advanced age and efficient service he was granted a pension by the railroad company and since then has traveled for his health, spending a good deal of his time in Los Angeles and Long Beach, California. He and his family were members of the Presbyterian church of North Platte.
Last summer Mr. Singleton became quite ill and went to Rochester, Minn., and was operated on at the Mayo Hospital. It was found that he had a cancer and because of advanced age nothing could be done to help him and he came to his home and remained until his death on Feb. 16th, 1921.

Isn't the Law Wonderful!
A Belgian paper tells of a woman living at Mons who is denied a marriage license because she does not know her name, age or birthplace and therefore "has no legal existence."
The case is analogous to that of a man named Mahony who was hanged some years ago. When the prison physician pronounced him dead, the body was cut down and delivered to the relatives. Life was not extinct, however, and a few hours later the man was quite himself again. He was shot by a murderer some time afterward, but the assassin could not be brought to justice because, as the court said, "Mahony was legally dead, and therefore could not be killed subsequently by anybody."
